PRESS RELEASE

Andreas Caminada and Philippe Rochat's restaurants are among the best 50 restaurants in the world

The "Oscars" for the world's best chefs have been presented at the Guildhall in London. Highly talented chef Andreas Caminada came top in the "highest new entry" category, while his restaurant, Schloss Schauenstein in Fürstenu, Switzerland, has leapt to 30th place in the "World's 50 best Restaurants".

One level higher, leading chef Philippe Rochat's restaurant, Hôtel de Ville in Crissier, Switzerland, has moved up two places in the world ranking to reach 14th position. A first-class performance!

Lifestyle by ZUG congratulates both of these great "artists" on their success and is pleased to be working with two of the world's best chefs!
