PRESS RELEASE

Quicklight becomes CookTop: an update to the V-ZUG range of hobs

A new name and a new design: the practical CookTop hobs (previously Quicklight) are elegant and modern. In combination with a built-in cooker, CookTop hobs give you lots of room for cooking. Depending on the specific hob they come with a roasting zone, a warming zone or a two-ring cooking zone. The print on the glass surface has been updated and the centring guide and symbols look more modern. The ClassicDesign, the reliable and robust protective printing on the V200, has also become more elegant.
