

COVID 19-specific information for persons attending cookery events

We are delighted that you have signed up for one of our cookery events.

As organizers we are obliged to inform you in advance of any potential risks or consequences of taking part in the event.

Our events are subject to all requirements set out by the Swiss Federal Office of Public Health (FOPH). Please also note the following:

Before the event:

- If you have been in contact with someone who has COVID-19 or have experienced symptoms of COVID-19 yourself within the last 14 days, you are not permitted to attend our events.
- We recommend that persons belonging to risk groups do not attend the events.
- We reserve the right to cancel events at short notice should there be changes to the epidemiological situation of the pandemic.

During the event:

- All participants must sanitize their hands when they enter the room. Hand sanitizer will be available on site.
- Participants must comply with the current social distancing and hygiene rules and follow the instructions on site.
- Face masks are available free of charge. Masks should be changed as necessary and every four hours as a minimum. Hands must be washed before the mask is put on and after the mask has been removed and disposed of. Disposable masks must be placed into a closed waste receptacle.
- Participants must be seated while consuming food and drink and maintain a distance of at least 1.5 m from others.

After the event:

- Please inform the organizer immediately if you become ill with COVID-19 directly after the event.
- Please also be aware that you may be asked to quarantine if it is established that someone you came into close contact with during the event has COVID-19.

By attending the event you are confirming that you have read and understood the information above and meet the attendance requirements.
