Whether as an appetizer to go with a sparkling cocktail or a refreshing mocktail, these bruschetta bring together savoury, sweet and crispy flavours to create a balanced taste experience.

Bruschetta

- 2 tbsp runny honey
- 50 g nuts, (e.g. walnut kernels) coarsely chopped
- 100 g feta, chopped
- 75 g Greek yogurt
- Some salt
- Some pepper
- ½ baguette, cut into 12 slices, each about 1 cm thick
- 2 sprigs of rosemary, needles pulled off

For serving

- 1 small pear, cut into thin wedges
- Some lemon juice
- Some olive oil
- 1 pinch of salt

Brushetta

Preheat the cooking space to 180 °C using the hot air mode. Mix the honey and nuts together in a bowl. Put the feta and jogurt in a food processor and blitz for about 2 minutes until creamy, season with salt and pepper to taste. Place the slices of baguette on a lined baking tray and brush with the feta cream. Scatter the honey and nut mixture over the top and sprinkle over the rosemary. Put the baking tray into the preheated cooking space and bake for about 15 minutes. Take out and allow to cool briefly.
